The first things she dove into was falling in love with the Word. She opted for peaceful defiance in not having her English supporters rise against their king, and in not pushing Charles into war with her husband over her marital rights despite the rejection of papal authority, the separation of the English Church from Rome, and Henry's titular designation. She sighed and leaned her cheek into the hand that still cupped her face, afraid to open her eyes. Which were it toilsom, yet with thee were sweet. Your son's rages and meltdowns sound exactly like the ones I myself experienced throughout my adolescence and young adulthood. It is one that we should earnestly embrace in order to further our understanding of human nature, rather than shy away from in fear of being politically incorrect.

Amid all this-mysterious clues have been left for Amy to follow, and a decision
