Shortest Day Longest Night

Strange as it may appear at first thought, yet it is no less strange than true, that notwithstanding all the professed determination to live godly, 6 apostates after turning from the faith of Christ, 7 unless they have speedily repented, 8 have sooner or later fallen into the snares of the wicked one, 9 and have been left destitute 10 of the Spirit of God, to manifest their wickedness in the eyes of multitudes. This desire to raise oneself a rung or two on the social ladder, to which even sensible bibliophiles appear to have succumbed, is no new thing.
