Egypt, which received the bulk of its arms and economic assistance from the USSR, was a troublesome client, with a reluctant Soviet Union feeling obliged to assist in both the Six-Day War with advisers and technicians and the War of Attrition with pilots and aircraft against pro-Western Israel. Review Passage on the Cardena is a gorgeous, cinematic, and engaging foray into a past we can't afford to forget. In 35 years of service, she fought the Japanese, explored the oceans, and gave young sailors their first taste of life at sea. One such example is Britannica Online, the Web counterpart to the venerable Sair.
